

MORE THAN 250 PEOPLE ATTEND CONSULTATION EVENTS

POSTED: 11/06/2018

More than 250 people attended the recent public exhibition sessions in Roehampton Parish Hall on Wednesday 6th and Saturday 9th June.

If you were not able to attend these events, you can download a copy of the exhibition materials by clicking on the links below. Please be aware that the files are large and may take some time to download.

We will also be holding additional drop-in sessions on Monday 11th June outside Roehampton Library from 2pm until 5pm and on Thursday 14th June on Downshire Field/Bull Green from 2pm until 5pm.

Copies of the exhibition materials will also be able to view throughout June and July in large presentation folders in Roehampton Library.

Please take the time to review the material and submit feedback using the button at the bottom of this page.
